

SJC OLD BOYS ASSOCIATION

THE MANIFESTO

By:

The "Kamal Sahdev" Team
Governing Council Term 2014-16

The team of Mr. Kamal Sahdev manifests to undertake the following activities so as to achieve the objects for which the society was set up:

Platform for the ex-students: Ex-students for their various needs sometimes need to come together to share past memories, catch up on social matters, seek guidance from seniors, seek work, job offers from the community ,etc. It falls upon the old boys to provide a platform for such an interaction amongst the community. The options are to provide a physical world location and also a virtual location for such a facility.

The team manifests to take up an office space in a central location to set up a secretariat. Employ suitable part-time staff for meeting the functional requirements. It also shall make the website more interactive to provide for greater interaction amongst the community. The members can then be free to visit the office for their registration, souvenir collection, meetings etc. as per their convenience. Similar features shall be provided on the virtual location (website).

School: Undoubtedly the school needs improvements, in the physical sense as well in improving its standards of imparting competitive education. A dedicated committee of concern old boys shall be formed for interaction and liaisioning with the school. The team recognizes the need to improve on the school - society relationship and build upon it.

Chapter formations: Various states shall have chapters whereby those outside the NCR region can get an opportunity to meet their colleagues and engage in meaningful interaction.

Welfare: The team intends to undertake welfare activities for target beneficiaries such as the retired teachers, staff, ex-students, etc. These would be in line with the objects of the society.

Assistance: Financial assistance in the form of scholarships for the bright and promising students in the school shall be taken up.

Semians in Need: Sometimes the fortune of life takes a difficult path and we find a fellow semian in a needy situation. It shall be the endeavor of the team to provide immediate assistance to such cases.

Website: There is a lot of scope of enhancing the capabilities of the website so as to make it more useful to the members. The team shall provide the features as provided in the best possible website of any school across India. Dedicated staff shall be deployed and additional spending done for the same.

Fundraising events: More meaningful events, such as play, picnic; games, etc. shall be organized to encourage the participation of members. Similarly events that bring together members and encourages meetings, participations shall be held with a view to enable members to familiarize themselves amongst the community.

Elder's Advisory: We shall seek advice from the elders in matters relevant to the society and get the benefit of their experience and counsel. An elder's advisory committee shall be formed for such purpose.
